

A SELF-EVALUATION OF SPIRITUAL INTELLIGENCE

Rate yourself according to the following scale

Needing much development 1 2 3 4 5 Very well developed

- _____ 1. My faith in God's understanding and compassionate love for me and for all human beings influences me to be more understanding and compassionate toward others.
- _____ 2. With God's help, I am aware of and able to deal effectively with the possibilities and pitfalls which occur when sometimes selfish, sometimes loving human beings come together in organizations and communities.
- _____ 3. I recognize and live out the call from God to have a servant's heart, to assist others in whatever way is possible.
- _____ 4. The Spirit of the living God has inspired me from deep within to live a purposeful life, to encourage others to catch God's vision for humanity, and to cooperate in making a better world, including the world of work.
- _____ 5. My awareness of how God influences me in a good way guides how I desire to positively influence others.
- _____ 6. My belief in a Creator who encourages people to realize their full potential, who guides and challenges me to be my best, influences me to do my part to help others to grow through constructive feedback, encouragement, and guidance.
- _____ 7. I experience God as a Presence who calls me to keep growing as a person and who works through me to encourage the betterment of individuals and organizations.
- _____ 8. I have experienced God's peace and reconciliation in my life and cooperate with God in being an instrument of reconciliation for others.
- _____ 9. My faith in a God who creates us to be in relationship with him and one another and whose love flows through me and out to others is an important component that helps me to relate well with people.
- _____ 10. My belief in a loving Creator, who wants us as human beings to work together, influences me to collaborate with others in building a better world, a better workplace, a better human family.